

Senior Research Writer – Real Estate (Contract/Part-time and Remote)

This is a remote part-time senior research writing position that requires an individual with the ability to carry out in-depth research into trends, technologies, problems, solutions, stakeholders and other relevant issues in the real estate industry in Nigeria. Such individual will use independently gathered resources to generate well written blog articles that target the general public. The successful candidate must be able to:

- Work independently to generate article topics with consultation with project supervisor.
- Carry out online and other forms of research.
- Gather data from numerous sources.
- Write and submit one article per week; minimum of 2,500 words.
- Use online tools to avoid plagiarism.
- Write articles in agreement with search engine optimization rules.
- Access to internet

Requirement

- Current PhD candidate or already awarded PhD degree (arts, social sciences, real estate management, architecture, etc.).
- Previous writing experience
- Must provide proof of PhD status.
- Applicants with Master's degree (with First Class Bachelors) may be considered; and must be planning or on the way to enroll in a PhD program.

Monthly earning

N140,000